

Modern Languages and Literatures, Teacher Education and Project DREAMS present:

A film screening and lecture by Charley Trujillo

Film: Soldados: Chicanos en Viet Nam

Lecture: Latinos in the War: from the Second World War to Iraq

Wednesday, November 14th at 6:30 pm in MB 2099

Charley Trujillo, veteran and award-winning author, will be here on campus to present his film Soldados: Chicanos In Viet Nam, based on his book by the same name (American Book Award winner, 1991). After the screening, Mr. Trujillo will also present a lecture concerning US Latino wartime participation from WWII to Iraq. Racial conflicts, patriotism, post-traumatic stress disorder, and the official recognition of minorities, will be just a few of the various issues discussed with the public.

For more information about Charley Trujillo and his film please visit: <http://www.pbs.org/pov/pov2003/soldados/behind.html>

This event will be sponsored by Modern Languages and Literatures, Teacher Education and Project DREAMS